

Ministry of human resources

Hungarian Presidency 2013-2014 of the
CEI 2013 • VISEGRAD GROUP

*Central European Initiative
Meeting of senior health experts
Budapest, Hungary 10-11 October 2013*

Programme

Central European Virtual Health Space

Venue: National Institute for Quality and Organisational Development in Healthcare and Medicines (GYEMSZI), Budapest XII., Diós árok 3.

10 October 2013, Thursday

in the morning

Arrival of participants

from 12.30

Buffet lunch

14.00 – 17.30

SESSION 1

14.00-14.10

Opening

Miklós Szócska, MD, Minister of State for Health

Agenda item1

Towards more responsive, effective and sustainable health systems

Setting the scene – keynote speeches:

14.10-14.40

Changing Healthcare: Investing in Affordable and Sustainable Health Systems for the Future

Barrie Dowdeswell

14.40-15.10

eHealth: From Hype to Reality

Clemens Martin Auer

15.10-15.40

Hungarian experiences in health sector modernisation

Miklós Szócska

15.40-16.10

Coffee break

16.10-17.30

Discussion

Sharing of experiences, good practices

Questions, contributions by participants on health sector modernisation

Countries contributing:

- Dario Sambunjak (Croatia): More responsive, effective and sustainable health systems
- Filip Domański (Poland): Polish experiences on EU reflection process and on other forms of international co-operation in the field of systems' strengthening

18.00

Dinner hosted by the Ministry of Human Resources

Árnyas Restaurant

11 October 2013, Friday

09.00-12.30

SESSION 2

Agenda item 2

Health workforce labour markets: expanding interconnections

09.00-09.30

Setting the scene - keynote speech:

Matthias Wismar, WHO Observatory

09.30-09.45

EU Joint Action on HWF Planning and forecasting

Eszter Kovács, Semmelweis University Health Services Management Training Centre

09.45-10.05

Monitoring HWF in Hungary

Zoltán Cserhádi and Katalin Dózsa, Hungarian Ministry of Human Resources; Department for Health Sector Human Resources Strategy

10.05-10.30

Facilitated discussion

Matthias Wismar, WHO Observatory & Zoltán Aszalós, JA WP4 leader

10.30-11.00

Coffee break

11.00-11.20

HWF Mobility in Hungary

Edmond Girasek, Semmelweis University Health Services Management Training Centre

11:20-11:40

Education and training: adaptation to changing HWF needs – allied health personnel in Hungary

Edit Rauh and Annamária György, National Institute for Quality and Organizational Development in Healthcare and Medicines; Directorate of Human Resources Development in Healthcare

11:40-12:00	WHO initiatives and tools to address HWF challenges Edit Eke, Semmelweis University Health Services Management Training Centre
12:00- 12:30	Facilitated discussion Matthias Wismar, WHO Observatory & Zoltán Aszalós, JA WP4 leader
12.30-13.30	Buffet lunch
13.30-15.30	SESSION 3
13.30-15.20	Agenda item 3 e-Health ICT applications to support decision making ICT applications to support cross-border health care Information sharing Common information platform: – data on health care systems – mapping hospitals and services – communication among reimbursement systems Joint research, development and innovation programmes e-Health Development Programmes in Hungary István Schiszler, Director for Regional Healthcare Management in South Central Hungary, National Institute for Quality and Organizational Development in Healthcare and Medicines Discussion Sharing of experiences, good practices Cooperation possibilities
15.20-15.30	Closing